ENSURE THE ARTS ARE A PART OF OUR CHILDREN'S FUTURE THROUGH YOUR WILL AND PLANNED GIVING

The Community Arts Council of the Saanich Peninsula (CACSP) is a volunteer driven charitable organization. We rely on the generous financial support of the community to continue to fund our programs and keep Tulista Arts Centre open.

Our goals include advocating for and supporting all forms of Arts and Culture in our community by supporting our member groups and students.

Core Programs:

'Arts in the Schools'

'Children's Art Classes'

'Artisans'

'Studio Tour'

'ArtSea Festival'

'Sidney Fine Art Show'

Gifts Made Through Your Will

Leaving a planned gift is an investment in the future, a meaningful way of saying that you care about succeeding generations. Personal philanthropy through a will can be a way of ensuring that your memory lives on. But a gift can also be a very practical addition to a financial or estate plan when tax issues are taken into consideration – it can significantly reduce the tax burden for your beneficiaries. A financial advisor can show you how planning this type of philanthropic gift can benefit your family after your death.

Providing for a charitable gift to the Community Arts Council of the Saanich Peninsula can be done easily by including a bequest to the Arts Council. A 'bequest' specifies that a certain percentage of your estate, particular assets, or specific dollar amount is to be directed to the Community Arts Council of the Saanich Peninsula. A charitable bequest can provide significant tax advantages to your estate.

When you make a bequest to the Community Arts Council of the Saanich Peninsula, your estate is entitled to a gift receipt for the full value of the bequest.

Leaving gifts to the Community Arts Council of the Saanich Peninsula through your will is an easy way to make a long-term commitment without affecting your assets or cash flow today. Your future gift will continue beyond your lifetime by helping your community to support the arts.

If you wish to name the Community Arts Council of the Saanich Peninsula as a beneficiary in your will consult your legal advisor.

Your gift can be your opportunity to participate in the work of the Arts Council long after you are gone. Together we can make a difference to this community by ensuring a strong future for the arts.
